A Note From Your Principal

Hello JFS families,

You will be receiving more information and updates about this year's winter concerts very soon from music teacher, Mr. Devon Cole. But, in the meantime, please SAVE THE DATE for Monday 12/18, the K-3 Winter Concert is at 5:30 and is expected to be 20-30 minutes. The 4th-6th Band & Chorus concert will be at 6:15 that same evening. We know that this can be a very busy time of year for many families. We are hoping that by having both concerts back to back on the same evening it will reduce stress.

The students have been practicing their songs and are getting excited to perform on stage. We invite students to dress up for the event(s) if they wish to, but we do not expect families to go out to purchase new clothing.

We welcome all families to come to these events. Please reach out to the main office if you have any questions.

Kindly,
Danielle Nutting

HAPPENINGS

K-3

We are on our final Ladybug Nominated books! Did you know that the ladybug is the official state insect of NH? Hence why we call them the Ladybug Awards. Our latest books had us learning more about nonfiction texts and facts vs. opinions.

4-6

We continue to work on research skills in the library to help support learners in their Trimester 2 nonfiction units. Hot topics have included plagiarism, the art of taking notes, and how to use our online databases.

NEW BOOKS

This month we got a shipment of new books. Learners have been thrilled about some of our additions, such as Besties, Sweet Valley Twins, Who Would Win, The Wild Robot Protects, and The Big Cheese.

This is a great time to review with your learner places to keep books safe so that others can enjoy them as well!
